

Ms. Lillian DeJean

Lillian DeJean resides in Broussard, Louisiana. She currently works as the Senior Coordinator at the Governor's Office of Disability Affairs (GODA). As part of her work with GODA, she is helping to create Louisiana's Register, Educate, Vote, Use your Power! (REV UP) coalition, which is a national grassroots initiative to promote the disability vote. Additionally, Ms. DeJean has collaborated with local, statewide, and national experts on disability voting accessibility to create GODA's Voting Accessibility Policy Proposals.

Ms. DeJean also currently serves as a self-advocate on the Louisiana Developmental Disabilities Council. There, she chairs the Youth Leadership Committee and has worked to increase empowerment and self-determination among people with disabilities.
